Boxed Web Lite

Boxed Web is an out of the box web site designed for small to medium sized businesses providing you all you need to establish a website to promote your business. Using an easy to use site wizard for your web site design you can have your company web site up and running in minutes, enabling you to promote your business and services to the world. Unlike many other 'out of the box' web site products currently offered Boxed Web coding adheres to the latest web accessibility guidelines and well as meeting coding standards future proofing your company web site for many years to come. Due to the high demand for Boxed Web product we have developed Boxed Web Lite, a Free version of Boxed Web distributed under the GpL license agreement. Still maintaining the ease of use of its parent product Boxed Web Lite can be downloaded free of charge.
